MAYOR'S OFFICE

Dear Mr Mayor,

All I can say is that I'm glad I went to school in New York City! With all the problems that we had at home, I never had any problems getting an education.

Why don't you let the students decide where they want to go school? Bussing is only making the people of Boston and surrounding areas hate one another.

When I moved to Boston, to go to school, I was under the impression that Boston was the "place to live." It was in the state that voted for McGovern and the state that fought for the freedom of slaves.

Why does the city government have the right to force children to go to schools
"a million miles" from home and only be unhappy. Children have the right to be happy!

Question: Do you have children? If you do — are they bussed or do you send them to school where you ~~all~~ want them to go to school? Think about it!

Believe me, this problem will only get worse. NOT BETTER.

Respectfully yours

College student.
