Extract from Grand Master's address, March 14, 1917

CHAIN LETTERS

Again it seems necessary to call your attention to another epidemic of chain letters that has recently broken out. I have personally received large numbers of them. Chain prayer letters seem to be the present most popular form and are being widely circulated in addition to those seeking money for various objects. Such letters are Unmasonic and prohibited in this jurisdiction. They are calculated to appeal to the superstitious and are a rank imposition upon those to whom they are sent. Every loyal Masonic officer and member should use every reasonable effort to rid the Fraternity of this pernicious practice so contrary to Masonic ethics and authority.
